To introduce myself, my name is ELISHBA.

If I wanted to listen to a Psalm transliterated by a synthesizer, what source code would I use?

If I wanted to listen to the interpretation of the Psalm in the custom synthesizer oscillation playback, what source code would originate the audio?

For example, how can I transliterate the Word of God in the Psalms to be heard through a custom synthesizer rack?

I ask to further the educational religious purposes of spreading the Scripture in service to God in awe, mercy, joy, doxa, arteia, and eulogia.

I started a foundation for this purpose named Elishba Foundation.

I am seeking the Lord to direct me on how to build the synthesizer rack to invite religious students of all ages, from infants to elders, from all religions to give feedback to God through psychotropic audio acoustics.

My holy spirit has observed your faithful works for many seasons through your touch and dialectic on the building of the synthesis racks. The sanctuary of Christ enjoins and sanctifies all our works with His faith.

I am living in Pasadena in a Christ ministry shelter refuge. I attend Pasadena City College where I practice a sainthood in audio engineering.

In my most humble regard, will you join my quest to erect the edifices of this kingdom?

Provided below is the Lord's blessing for all your creative works.
This is the beginning example I ask how to codify the Words to Christological oscillations and Eschiatalogical cosmological waveform formulas.

Open our hearts and receive the mirth of our Lord today.

Psalm 100
A psalm. For giving grateful praise.

1
Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.

2
Worship the LORD with gladness;
come before him with joyful songs.

3
Know that the LORD is God.
It is he who made us, and we are his[a];
we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.
4
Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and praise his name.

5

For the LORD is good and his love endures forever;
his faithfulness continues through all generations.

All perfect praise be Allah Jehovah Adonai Eloheinu Adonai Isa ibn Maryam Muhammad Moses Solomon David Abaraham Ishmael
